Letter from the Editor

The Tour 'de Cunderdin was a fantastic event! Well done to the Cunderdin Youth Council for organising it and a special thanks to the raffle donors, I was very happy with my winning prize. I wasn't lucky in the guessing how many lollies in the jar but that's probably for the best!

We have a busy events schedule coming up in October, I have been brushing up on my golf skills for the Birdies for Boobies Ambrose day, I hope there is a prize for most puts!! Then the next week its off to the yummy morning tea.

My favourite event would have to be the Shindig. I hope you have your pink outfits ready and some dancing shoes worn in, to raise money for Breast Cancer. There is a best pink dress-up prize to be won and have you seen the raffles prizes!

I hope to see all the community supporting the Pink Up Our Towns events. Lets all get together and raise money for breast cancer.

Leechelle Matthews

The Pink Up Committee would like to thank our awesome local businesses who are sponsoring our events and activities to raise money for Breast Cancer.

Thank you

MECKERING MUSINGS

Hello Beautiful Bandicoot Browsers!

What a busy and exciting term we have had! NAIDOC Week, Meckering Cross Country, Book Week, Public School Review, Faction Athletics Carnival, Northam Show and Interschool Athletics Carnival,

MECKERING CROSS COUNTRY

This is the 26th year since the inception of the Meckering Cross Country. 'Our Cross Country' is the phrase coined by all, with students, staff, parents and the wider community all having equal ownership in it with a true sense of community pride. Not bad for a school with 20 students K-6, a complete staff of 10 and a community of just over 200.

This year 301 children participated, with 22 schools represented. We came 5th overall, which is an awesome accomplishment for the smallest school. Great job kids.

Thank you to everyone who worked so hard to make the event flow so nicely, your generosity of time and expertise is greatly appreciated.

WACOA CUNDERDIN EXCURSION

Last Friday we attended the Cunderdin Agriculture College's Open Day. If you haven't been before, I highly recommend it. There is so much to do and see and lots to keep the children engaged. We were extremely impressed with the work the students have done in the Trade Centre and their knowledge about all things agriculture (no question from our inquisitive students was left unanswered).

MECKERING MOON ON WATER - TUCKER BUSH GARDEN OFFICIAL OPENING

On Friday the 20th October at 11am, we will have the official opening of our Moon on Water (Meckering) Tuckerbush Garden. This has been 2.5 years in the making and we are extremely proud of it. We have over 30 different edible native plants which are identified by signs that the children created, complete with QR codes to provide further information on the uses and features of each.

Please come along (we will place an invitation on the noticeboard) and join us for the opening, bush tea, kangaroo sausages, and some other tasty edible treats using native Australian plants.

Caroline Whitelock (Principal)

COLLEGE HAPPENINGS

College Open Day 8 September 2023

Thank you to everyone that attended our Open Day at the College on Friday.

We had phenomenal numbers through the gates, a massive turnout to our Closing Ceremony and overwhelming positive feedback throughout the day.

The area displays were exceptional, the school groups had a thoroughly enjoyable time, 2024 and prospective students attended with their families and the dignitaries in attendance could not have been more impressed.

The Director General, Department of Education WA Lisa Rodgers said, we are one of the 'highest performing' schools in the state, not based on ATAR medians or other typical historic measurables, but based on how much our students achieve, excel and are prepared for post-school opportunities.

Director General, Department of Education WA Lisa Rodgers

What an absolutely sensational day indeed!

Carter Cup 2023

Article for the Bandicoot Express, 21 Sept 2023

A 21m wingspan DG1000 soaring over Cunderdin

If you look up around noon on Saturday 4th November, you will see a flock of man-made giant eagles wheeling effortlessly in the sky over Cunderdin

This is the start of the Carter Cup - the Gliding Club of Western Australia's annual competition for sail planes, named in honour of the former Shire President of Cunderdin who passed away nine years ago.

Rod Carter was President of the Gliding Club and an accomplished glider pilot - indeed the day before he passed away in October 2014, he was instructing aspiring pilots in the sport he loved.

Carter Cup

Come noon on 4th November, his former companion sailors of the sky will be jockeying for position, waiting for the 'starting gun' for the first of a week-long series of races that will culminate in the best pilot winning the coveted Carter Cup.

An hour before the race, competitors will line up on the runway at Cunderdin airfield ready to be towed up into the sky and set themselves for a three-to-four-hour flight over the canola and wheat fields that carpet the Avon Valley in Spring.

They have to pit their wits against each other and work with nature to find the thermal currents that will hold them aloft long enough to complete the set course and return safely to the airfield.

Rod Carter, former Shire President and Glider Pilot

Gliders on the starting grid at Cunderdin

It is expected that there will be about 15 entries from around the State.

In the next Issue we will give you a list of all the entrants, details of the gliders they will be flying and how you can follow the fortunes of each pilot.

Gliding is a sport anyone of any age, from any background can come and enjoy. Air experience flights can be purchased and booked online at:

<https://glidingclubofwa.org.au/air-experience-flights/>

Block your driver's licence to lock-out identity thieves

Money is not the only thing scammers are looking to steal these days – your personal identification can be just as valuable to them.

As part of their ruse, scammers posing as legitimate organisations or government service providers often pretend to need copies of your driver's licence and passport to verify your identity, when their actual aim is to steal it.

Having your identity stolen can cause devastating and long-lasting impacts, from finding unauthorised purchases on your credit card, through to having your name used to open bank accounts, take out loans and even to scam other people.

Just recently, Consumer Protection issued a warning about a fake WA Seniors Card website that was targeting seniors for both their money and multiple forms of identification. In reality, the WA Seniors Card is free of charge and applicants are never requested to pay a fee, or disclose personal identification in exchange for membership.

Aside from sending scammers your personal information, the other way they can get their hands on it is through data breaches that occur when cybercriminals hack into an organisation's system and leak their customers' details onto the dark web.

To help protect all WA consumers from identity theft, the Department of Transport has made it possible to put a block on your driver's licence to stop it being used to verify your identity online.

Putting a block on your driver's licence or learner's permit means if a scammer tries to use these documents for identity verification through the Australian Government's Document Verification Service (DVS), it will be declined.

You can add and remove a driver's licence block anytime using DoTDirect by navigating to the 'Protect your identity' section on the 'Driver's licence' page. Your authority to drive is not affected by having a block on your driver's licence.

To learn more about what to do when your driver's licence has been compromised, including how to block it or apply for a new licence number, go to www.transport.wa.gov.au

If you are caught up in a data breach, or have handed over your personal identification to scammers, your first step should be to contact IDCARE, a national identity and cyber support service on 1800 595 160.

“Shearing for Liz” Pink Day

Shearing For Liz held its 10th anniversary raising funds for the Breast Cancer Research Centre WA. Held at the Davies’ shearing shed in Yorkrakine. With over 50 amazing items going up for action the team managed to raise over $103,000 making the overall total for the last 10 years - $500 000 donated to the cause.

The idea for the fundraiser began when shearer Tom Reed and his wife Lucy tragically lost their good friend — Albany woman Liz Roberts — to breast cancer. Each year since, the Reeds have rallied a team of shearers to donate a day’s earnings to the Breast Cancer Research Centre and have held the event at the Davies’ shed.

Investigative journalist John Bailey is doing his best to turn his life around after losing the woman he loved. He has a new job. He's given up the drink. He even has a dog. But then Federal Police raid his home with a warrant granting them unprecedented powers to take anything they want, including all his electronic devices and passwords. When Bailey protests, they threaten to put him in a prison cell. Someone wants to stop Bailey doing what he does best – exposing the truth. He has been investigating the rise of a global white supremacist group and suspects that a notorious neo-Nazi in the United States has been directing deadly racist attacks on Sydney's streets. When the body of one of his key sources washes up on a nearby beach, it's clear Bailey and anyone helping him have become targets. Bailey reaches out to a ruthless old friend – CIA veteran, Ronnie Johnson – to lure the enemy from the shadows. An enemy who thought they were untouchable. Until now ...

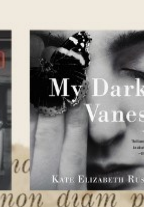

Jo Ainsley has been running for a long time. From her childhood in small town England to art school in London to the messy end of a relationship in Sydney, Jo has chosen to run again and again, each time moving further from where her troubles began. This time, her escape will bring her to the remote northwest region of Western Australia, where she must work for 88 days on a farm in order to extend her visa. There she meets an American, Gabe, with whom she has an immediate connection. He tells her of an idyllic off-grid community which seems like a refuge to her. Miserable, desperate and traumatised by a brutal event at the farm, Jo decides to run. But the paradisaal free-diving haven that embraces her without judgement is not all it seems. It harbours some sinister secrets - and so does Gabe. Jo searches for answers, but is she prepared for what she uncovers? She must decide where her loyalties lie and if she is really ready to confront the darkness of her past...

Getting Into the Driver's Seat – It's Our Health

Empowering men to take responsibility for their wellbeing and health, that's our core focus here at The Regional Men's Health Initiative. We do this in light of the adverse statistics that represent men's health in general and the notion that for a large proportion of men developing their health knowledge is not seen as a priority. This fits with men having a more functional view of their health i.e. not seeking help until we are virtually physically impaired by the problem. We often challenge men on these points but what does it really mean as a bloke to take responsibility for his own wellbeing and health?

As blokes we take responsibility and make a lot of informed decisions throughout our lives, on a variety of things such as family, work and social issues. Why then should decisions about our wellbeing and health be any different?

Too many blokes are running into trouble because we keep avoiding and putting off looking after our wellbeing and health. Just being a passive participant is not good enough, we need to be the one in the driver's seat in all areas of our health be it physical, mental or social/spiritual.

Taking responsibility for our wellbeing and health means becoming an active and informed healthcare consumer. It means scheduling regular service visits with our doctor and being aware of issues that affect us at certain stages of our lives, such as the potential for prostate problems as we get older. We also need to consider issues that could be common in our families (hereditary) and discuss these with the doctor. It's a bit of a generalisation but how many of us guys rely on our wives or partners for our health when it comes to our diet i.e. what food is in the house and what we eat for dinner?

Remember that it's not our wife's, mate's or doctor's wellbeing and health, it's ours. Good wellbeing and health can only happen if and when we as blokes take responsibility!

While taking charge is important it doesn't mean we have to go it alone, we all need help sometimes. From a community educator and support worker perspective, this often means our role involves walking beside someone helping to establish relevant pathways of support. It could also be simply listening to and validating people's issues and accompanying emotions. We see it as, walking beside the ute with the window down but not hopping in, it's your ride, you are the one in the driver's seat!

Our key message ... before it at all gets too much... Talk to a Mate®!! requires us to take some responsibility in that it's important we identify who our mates are so that when it all hits the fan (and it does happen) we have a plan in place to address things.

Cunderdin Co-op History

running as Brown's Agency Store. This now being the home Cunderdin Rural Traders, which is a fully owned division of the Cunderdin Co-op.

Since the Company was formed, the Co-op has purchased, built, and sold houses in Cunderdin. At present the Co-op own three homes, one in Margaret Street, one in Mitchell Street and one in Bedford Street.

In February 1985, the Co-op Directors commenced the major upgrading of the main store. This was completed in three months at a cost of $100,000.00. Included in this upgrading were new freezer and refrigeration units at an extra cost of $40,000.00. New wall display areas were built in the grocery, hardware, and drapery departments and in the following year floor coverings were laid throughout the departments. The final phase to these improvements was completed in August 1987 with refurbishing of the Office area and the replacement of the ceiling in the café.

Since then, the fronts of all buildings have been upgraded and painted and in 1990 electric doors fitted to the Foodland Grocery store.

In accordance with AVCA rules the remainder of the old Halbert ramp was removed in December 1992. With a binned area constructed in this shed, gave the Co-op licenced chemical storage. In the same year, the old cool room was replaced by a combined freezer/cool room with display doors to the Grocery Department. At the same time, new fixtures and fittings were installed for the display of fruit and vegetable. The total cost of these improvements was $48,500.00.

In November 1995, the Hardware and the Drapery departments exchanged buildings. This gave your Directors room to increase the floor space occupied by the hardware which then allowed them to increase the hardware range of stock substantially. At that time, the hardware was separated from the Co-op to trade under its own registered trading name of Cunderdin Rural Traders.

Over the next few years, the drapery department was slowly incorporated into the grocery department to form one larger variety store in the original

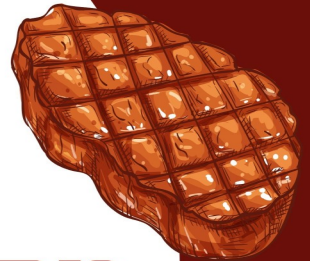

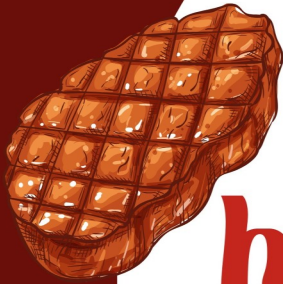

Co-op building.

In late 1997, the old Co-op ramp was replaced with a new Colorbond chemical storage shed. This is a lockable shed that fully complies with current regulations in regard to the selling and storage of farm chemicals. On the east side of this building a new ramp for LP gas was constructed. Late 1997 and early 1998 we replaced the remaining old grocery fixtures with new "barn style" fittings.

In 1999, the old shop front of the Rural Centre was replaced with new aluminium windows and electric doors. Cunderdin is in the enviable situation of having shopping facilities that are way above those of towns of similar size. It has been the support over the last eighty years from the shareholders of the Co-op who have enabled the Company to grow to its present size and to be able to offer you, its current shareholders, the large range of products and services that it presently does.

PLEASE SUPPORT YOUR CO-OP.

ATTENTION

PEOPLE WITH HEEL AND ARCH PAIN

Plantar Fasciitis (planar heel pain) is a common condition that causes pain under the heel of the foot, and may extend into the arch area.

WHAT ARE THE SYMPTOMS?

The pain under the heel is worse when the person first steps out of bed in the mornings, or after sitting for long periods of time. It is relieved after walking about for a few minutes, then returns towards the end of the day. Resting will ease the pain, until you get up again.

WHAT IS THE CAUSE?

The exact cause of plantar heel pain is unknown, but we do know this is a degenerative process in which micro tears occur within the plantar fascia. Several risk factors including over-pronation (rolling inwards of foot), tight calf muscles and long periods of standing/walking hard floors have been well established.

TREATMENT

Some of the more common treatments we offer are:

- Custom foot orthotics
- Corticosteroid injection
- Dry-needling
- Rehabilitation

WHY SEE WA FOOT CLINICS?

Plantar heel pain is a complex issue and treatment varies depending on the cause. At WA Foot Clinics we have Podiatrists that are highly trained foot professionals who see and treat heel pain on a daily basis.
