Letter from the Editor

2023

What a fantastic few weekends we have had! Well done to all the organisers of Back to Cunderdin, it was great to see the town busy with excitement.

We also had a lot of new faces at Cunderdin and Meckering movie nights, it was great to see so many people enjoying these events. A big thank you to the CBH Grass Roots Grant for making this possible.

I have included a light read from Wendy Carter in this issue of the Bandicoot and not because I also have a beautiful quilt that she has made on my bed, I thought it was an interesting read with some lovely lessons.

If you have a story you would like to add to an issue of the Bandicoot please pop into see me.

CUNDERDIN DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL

'STRIVE TO BE YOUR BEST'

Celebrating 75 Years in Style!

On Saturday 11 March Cunderdin District High School was able to join in the Back to Cunderdin celebrations by hosting an event for their 75th Anniversary.

It was a delight to see such a big crowd arrive for the day, as past students, parents and teachers came to mingle with our current cohorts. The classroom displays looked spectacular, and the level of excitement stayed high for the entire event.

An official ceremony was held, with guest speakers including Fred Marsh, Principal from 1967-1969, and Mrs Hayley Taylor, Principal from 2012-2020. Mrs Helen Darmody then cut a ribbon to officially open 'Memory Lane,' re-enacting her cutting the ribbon in 1948 to open the school.

The food put on by the Rapid Response Team, Flavour Town Catering, our local ladies, and the Cunderdin Basketball Association's Donut Van was great, equally matched by perfect weather.

Many thanks to The Shire of Cunderdin, The Lions Club, The Cunderdin DHS Parents and Citizens Association, and The Cunderdin Youth Council for all of their assistance in preparing for the day and the running of different aspects during the festivities.

Administration Team Member 22 Hours A Week

Who Are We

Founded in 1917, the Quairading Farmers' Co-Operative was set up by a group of farmers frustrated with not being able to source goods and services locally, ten years after the townsite of Quairading was gazetted in 1907. Today the main operational business for the Co-Op is owning and running Quairading's supermarket. It owns approximately half of the main street buildings in Quairading's main street, which makes it a landlord as well. And whilst the Co-Op's main job is running the community's supermarket, that isn't our main purpose. Our purpose is to provide goods and services to our community that it deserves. The Co-op is owned by local shareholders (more than 350 of them), and five of these shareholders are elected to the board, to oversee and guide the organisation. This unique legal structure, purpose and our team of excellent employees are the key to the Co-op's existing and long-term success.

Job Description

- Maintain the Co-operatives shareholder registry
- Input data to assist in keeping our inventory system up to date
- Maintain our asset register
- Complete banking as required
- Oversee the management and documentation of our commercial leases.
- Ensure Bookkeeping (Accounts, Invoicing, Journals) and payroll is completed when required
- Aid the Co-Op Manager with research and obtaining quotes for all areas of the Co-operatives business e.g., Workers' Comp & Business Insurance, Electricity contract, creation of budgets
- Flexible working arrangements available for the right applicant. School hours are available, as is working from home.

Work Environment for The Right Person

We are looking for a high achieving, customer focused, attention to detail, team member who has:
Excellent communication (written and verbal) skills
Local knowledge (desirable)

Applicant attributes

Strong attention to detail and high level of accuracy
High levels of motivation, and can work both independently and as part of a team
Ability to problem solve and prioritise workflow
Previous experience with Sybiz Accounting Program and WorldSmart Retail Program (desirable but not essential)

To Apply

Man charged over alleged attack as victim flown to hospital

Anthony Anderson

A man has been charged with grievous bodily harm after a man was rushed to hospital with serious head injuries following an incident in central Western Australia.

Police were called to a home at Merredin, in WA's central Wheatbelt region, about 9.10pm on Friday evening responding to reports of an assault.

Officers found a 49-year-old man unresponsive with serious head injuries.

He was taken to Merredin Hospital by ambulance in a critical condition before being flown to Royal Perth Hospital.

A 46-year-old man was arrested at a Merredin home about 2.15am Saturday.

He was due to face a Perth court on Sunday having been charged with one count of grievous bodily harm. Merredin is about 260km east of Perth, about halfway between the WA capital and the mining town of Kalgoorlie.

The Cunderdin CRC hosted 2 movies nights back to back thanks to CBH Grass Roots grants. On Friday 17th March with the wind kicking up just a few knots over the allowed minimum for the inflatable screen, we relocated Top Gun Maverick to the Cunderdin Town Hall. Unfortunately even the signs blew away letting people know about the sudden relocation! But people managed to find us eventually!

A huge thank you to the Shire of Cunderdin for allowing us to use the town hall on such short notice and to Trevor Thompson and Brenda Fissioli for helping us move the Cunderdin Memorabilia from the Back to Cunderdin event so suddenly. We would also like to thank the Lions Club for providing us with their amazing BBQ trailer and delivery and pick up from Vic.

We kicked off the night making over 100 burgers almost running out! Thank you to Andrew Moore, Shanika Moore and Jessica Chant and Liezl for helping make everyone a burger. Cunderdin Youth Group partnered with Northam Bridgeley Youth Group travelling on big orange bus from Northam to Cunderdin, filling up the hall quickly! Amber and Liezl provided Popcorn making it feel like a real cinema!

The movie was fantastic Tom Cruise looking like he hasn't aged a day since the last Top Gun movie 36 years ago! It is definitely a movie to add to the watch list, if you missed it, it will be available in the Cunderdin Library.

On Saturday the Cunderdin CRC headed to Meckering to show the DC League of SuperPets. We provided a delicious free sausage sizzle with the help of Sandy Laird, Wayne Laird, Cheryl Halse and Andrew Moore the team cooked up a storm serving over 60 snags.

The Meckering Club was packed with people ready for laughs as we set up the cinema. Thank you to the Meckering Club for allowing us to host the movie at your premises. It was great to see so many people at the movie. The League of Superpets movie with the voices of The Rock—Dwayne Johnson and Kevin Hart was a hit but I think the groovy old turtle got the most laughs! We look forward to the next community movie nights we host. In the future.

Loving the cooler evenings! I know soon we'll all be saying its too cold, but I'm embracing the change in season. Looking forward to seeing the winter sports start to kick off - footy and hockey - Go the Magpies! And not mention the AFL season starting. Here's some recommendations to fill any spare time - Dee Blom

This Is Going To Hurt by Adam Kay - Book + TV Series

Graphic with dark humour. If that doesn't appeal, don't read this book or watch the series. This memoir dives deep and detailed into the life of Adam Kay who is a junior doctor within the NHS. This book and tv series details just what the day to day looks like for anyone willing to commit themselves to the medical profession, sometimes at the risk of losing everything else. Adam's story is also a rallying cry to everyone in the NHS that feels the same way, and wants there to be structural change in the way medical treatment is delivered in the UK. Powerful and thought provoking as long as you have strong stomach.

Vigil - TV Series

If you don't enjoy small cramped spaces, I wouldn't suggest this. Set on a submarine, Detective Chief Inspector Amy Silva of the Scottish Police Service is sent to investigate a death on board along with the disappearance of a fishing trawler. It was inspired by the UK's Continuous At-Sea Deterrent (CASD) and the life of its submarine crew.

Sherwood - TV Series

I love the BBC. Consistently delivering excellent shows that dive into the UK mind and have you guessing. This tv series, inspired by real events, explores the unrest in a mining village where two unexpected killings take place. Set in the context of a post-Brexit Britain with a deep dark history spanning generations, this series packs a punch across six episodes.

The Courier - Film

Benedict Cumberbatch need I say more. He brings all his talents to the screen in this film. Cumberbatch plays a British businessman hand picked by MI-6 and the CIA to gather critical intelligence from Moscow at the height of the Cold War. Based on facts and real world events, this film will have you at the edge of your seat, hoping for a peaceful outcome.

Murder on the Home Front - Film

This film brings an unlikely duo together - think Sherlock Holmes and Watson - to uncover horrific crimes done under the complete cover of darkness during the London Blitz in 1940. Quirky and progressive characters stand out amongst the traditional thinking of the time. Amazing set production and costuming, you will easily be immersed in the era.

The Unbelieved by Vikki Petraitis - Book

You may be familiar with Vikki's true crime books, where she dives into Lawyer X or the Russel Street bombings. Her writing skills have been turned to her first fictional novel and its a ripper. Compelling from the get go, Senior Detective Antigone Pollard heads to Deception Bay to start again after some horrific cases. Soon she is faced with some equally confronting crimes in her small town. Written with the depth and knowledge of the police force, criminal acts and the court system, this packs a punch. Look out for Waffles, he's my favourite.

York Olive Oil Co - Destination

Power was out in town, so I thought let's go to York! I'd been there countless times but never to the York Olive Oil Co. What a delightful place. Good olive oil locally grown and processed, alongside excellent ice-cream - personally recommend the Jarrah honey flavour - and to top it off you can get yourself a beautiful loaf of wood fired sourdough. There is even a epic playground with zip lines and slides. Hot tip - call ahead a few days to get yourself bread, as they sell out and sometimes can only make enough for orders. I'll definitely be back.

Rum, Rebels and Ratbags - Podcast

Hosted by historian and author of Girt, David Hunt each episode reveals the untold history to some familiar and not so familiar names in Australian colonial history. Sir Joseph Banks - turns out he was into more than just the plants. Definitely some eye opening tales to give more perspective on our country's origins and history.

Cunderdin Museum Turns 50

Last weekend the Cunderdin Museum celebrated its 50th anniversary as part of the Back to Cunderdin Weekend

The museum was a hive of activity all weekend kicking off Friday evening with the Cunderdin Photography Club's exhibition launch of 'A sense of Place'. This wonderful collection of photographs is on display in the Boiler Room gallery until mid-April and well worth a visit.

Saturday morning the museum hosted a reunion with past and present museum volunteers and committee members coming together including Mrs. Betty Stokes, OAM and Mr. Rupert Weller founding members of the first Museum Committee. We were delighted they could join us and be part of our dedication of the memorial plaque dedicated to the founding committee for their tireless efforts in bringing James Stokes' vision of a local museum into reality. The Museum Committee thank Mr. Graham Cooper for his generous donation to produce the plaque.

As part of the festivities, we had the team from Wheatbelt Draft Horses displaying with their draft horse Betty demonstrating how horsepower was generated to drive agricultural machinery such as chaff cutters. Mr. Rupert Weller provided a talk and demonstrated the operation of a steam powered engine to produce power for agricultural operations. During his time with the Cunderdin School of Agriculture, Rupert taught his students how to repair and maintain vintage tractors and machinery. This amazing tractor collection was donated to the Cunderdin Museum in the early 1970's and remains one of the main attractions at the museum today. Since his time with the school and museum Rupert has continued to refurbish and keep our steam powered engines working.

Sunday morning was the book launch of 'The Museum Cat' written and illustrated by Jan Whisson, OAM. This gorgeous picture book follows the adventures of our museum cat Boo and will no doubt inflate his already huge ego.

The entire weekend was fantastic, and our guests all enjoyed their time at the museum. Events such as these are only achieved through the hard work of many people working together for a common goal. My sincere thanks and gratitude to the Cunderdin Men's Shed and Lions Club for participating in busy bees to get the museum neat and tidy. Thanks to Graham Cooper for organizing busy bees and providing his fork-lift.

None of this would have been possible without the continued efforts of the museum volunteers who are an amazing group of individuals. Thankyou to Jan, Dianne, Ann, Daphne, Leanne, Susan, and Tony who all went above and beyond to ensure the weekend was a success.

MEDIA RELEASE

STATEMENT ON LIVE SHEEP EXPORT BAN

16th March 2023

Member for Central Wheatbelt Hon Mia Davies MLA has delivered a statement in Parliament on the devastating decision of the Albanese Labor Government to shut down live sheep export.

The transcript of the 90 Second Statement is below, or you can watch at <https://bit.ly/3ZPEsst>

Please sign the petition to be tabled in Parliament in Mia's Northam or Merredin electorate office during business hours, or you can add your name to the e-petition here: <https://bit.ly/3SwPYX7>.

Help us send a message to the McGowan and Albanese Labor Government.

90 Second Statement – Live Sheep Trade

I rise to place my support for the thousands of people and hundreds of businesses and livelihoods linked to the live sheep export industry – and to express my deep anger, concern, and opposition to the Federal Labor Government's decision to shut it down.

I stand by those farmers, truck drivers, shipping companies, livestock agents, veterinarians, port workers, shearers, feedlot businesses and all involved in the sector – no legitimate industry should ever be closed for political reasons, or to suit activist agendas.

Whilst there have been challenges – it is an industry that has undertaken significant reforms that have seen best practice animal welfare outcomes achieved on an international scale.

The trade employs about 3,500 people across the supply chain - 80 per cent of those based here in Western Australia, many in my electorate of Central Wheatbelt.

Labor's decision is devastating, driven by the desire to appease animal activists and capture inner-city votes.

The Albanese Labor Government is no friend of Western Australia – and neither is the McGowan State Government. I have never seen a less enthusiastic, muted and defeatist attitude than that shown by Minister Jacquie Jarvis and Premier McGowan when it comes to standing up for West Australians on this issue.

If they truly supported the industry they would be on the front foot every day railing against this decision. Instead, they shrug their shoulders and relinquish this important industry to a political hatchet job by their own Party and Prime Minister.

Industry and its leaders should demand more of their State Agriculture Minister, and WA should punish the Albanese Government at the next election – Labor is no friend of regional Western Australia.

Back 2 Cunderdin Weekend thankyou

There was a warm glow in the air with the Back To Cunderdin celebrations taking place on the weekend of March 10th, 11th and 12th and it wasn't just the weather!

A fabulous weekend of events and nostalgia saw the whole town come together and commemorate milestone anniversaries for our school and museum.

Kicking off at the museum with the Cunderdin Photo Club "Sense of Place" exhibition on Friday night, budding photographers showcased what it means to live and work in Cunderdin. The wine and cheese evening was thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd in attendance. The exhibition will continue until the end of March - don't miss it!

The Friends of the Town Hall committee decked out the hall with memories and photos of the hall and Main Street from days gone by. Visitors remembered past musical plays, balls and functions held in the hall and the personalities that made them so memorable. "Chum's room," featuring honour boards from past sporting days was open to the public and provided many with memories of past sporting triumphs and heroics.

On Saturday morning, the Cunderdin Museum celebrated 50 years with a morning tea and speeches. Special guests included Mia Davies, Central Wheatbelt MLA and two of the inaugural Museum committee members, Mrs Betty Stokes, OAM and Mr Rupert Weller. Many old acquaintances were renewed and the draft horse and steam engine displays provided an insight into olden day times.

The afternoon saw the Cunderdin District High School celebrate it's 75th anniversary with a range of food, activities and dedications. Past and present principals spoke of the school's history, while the time capsule from the 50th anniversary was opened. Classrooms representing the different decades allowed past students to wander through and meet up with old schoolmates.

The weather couldn't have been better on Saturday night with hundreds of people enjoying the outdoor ambience at the Cunderdin Club. With festoon lighting, live music and picnic food, families and friends gathered on the lawn or in the marquee and celebrated a truly wonderful occasion. The Cunderdin Hotel also featured live music and provided another venue for past Cunderdin identities to catch up and tell tall tales.

Sunday morning had the Lions fellas up early to prepare a yummy breakfast for the early birds- and the stragglers! Offering a final chance to catch up before the weekend was over, many took the opportunity to grab a coffee and enjoy the lingering atmosphere of the Club.

My sincere thanks go to anyone who contributed in any way to making the event such a success.

My favourite motto -"if everyone does a little, no-one has to do a lot", was clearly evident over the weekend and it culminated in Cunderdin displaying her very best.

My heartfelt thanks go to all of the Shire staff who jumped on board the Back To Cunderdin train with enthusiasm and energy and presented a community event that will be remembered with great fondness for many years to come.

And finally, a very big thank you to the following contributors-

Medical Student Immersion Program

From the 14th to the 17th of March, we had the privilege of meeting 8 medical students from Curtin University as part of the Medical Student Immersion Program. These students were given the opportunity to visit CDHS, tour the Museum, play scrabble with the seniors, tour the Snooke farm, hang out with the youth, explore the ambulance, and tour the Cunderdin College of Agriculture. Throughout their stay, the students were able to learn what it is like living and working in the country as well as get to know what is involved in the farming industry.

We would like to thank everybody involved in making the program possible. Thank you to the host families who housed and took care of the students for the week. Thank you Isareeya from Curtin University, Nic (Niche) from Rural Health West and Fraser from Regional Health West for supervising the students. And thank you to Lilly, Kayla, Charlotte, Belle, Jess, Nick, Chathumi and Erin for making the week a truly memorable experience, full of learning and laughter. We hope to see you again soon, and we look forward to seeing where the future takes you.

MEDIA RELEASE

BACK TO CUNDERDIN WEEKEND A GREAT SUCCESS

14 March 2023

Member for Central Wheatbelt Mia Davies joined residents of Cunderdin past and present to celebrate the 75th Anniversary of the Cunderdin District High School and the 50th Anniversary of the Cunderdin Museum over the weekend.

She congratulated everyone from the District High School, No. 3 Pump Station Museum, Shire of Cunderdin who had worked on making the event a success.

“It was wonderful to see how many people returned to the town to catch up with friends, family and colleagues over the weekend,” Ms Davies said.

“There was lots of sharing memories with old friends and a great opportunity for different generations to talk about their experience living or working in Cunderdin.”

She said the Museum was not only an important part of the State's history as a former pump station for the goldfields pipeline but also a collection and record of the growth and progress of the community for future generations.

“It captures the stories of the pipeline, our agricultural and community history and even the building is a stunning example of architectural form and function,” she said.

“Councillors Alison and Todd Harris did a marvellous job of acknowledging the work of volunteers through the years, including those that were the driving force behind the Museum getting started.”

Ms Davies said so much work had gone into marking the occasion, from exhibitions of pertinent moments in Cunderdin's history, photographic displays, tours of celebrated venues and youth activities.

“Appreciation also goes to the team at the Cunderdin District High School where a fantastic display of students and memorabilia throughout the 75 years was on display,” she said.

“A sincere congratulations to all involved, it was a moving and special weekend to celebrate this remarkable little town in Wheatbelt.”

Mushy's Quilt - 2013

By Wendy Carter

The story behind the quilt.

I am a patchwork quilter. What you may not know, is that some quilts are a joy to make and are easy. Some are NOT. This is in the 'Not' category.

My friend, Mushy, in Edinburgh Scotland moved into a new house. Very excited to have extra bedrooms and a kitchen bigger than a broom closet - some space to live in bigger than her tiny flat. I wanted to do something special for her, so I decided to make her a quilt.

On asking her, she said it would be lovely, something simple, in turquoise and white, super king size would be great, and she would love anything I make for her.

The search for fabrics began. Turquoise and white fabrics are not easy to find. Turquoise was not 'IN' at present. I looked online, in shops everywhere. On a trip to Bali, I enjoyed the hunt for batik fabrics, and finding an amazing shop which has become my favourite go-to fabric shop in Denpasar. Not much was available, so I went with some greens and blues and hoped for the best.

That was just the start of the difficulties this quilt was about to present.

I had purchased a fairly simple pattern from a patchwork shop, started cutting it out, did a bit of sewing, laid it out on a spare bed and it looked... horrid! Even Rod said it was an 'assault on his eyes'. I knew I had to change it.

Threw the pattern away and made up my own simple design, but the challenge was to use the fabric I'd already cut out. 'Keep it simple' she said. OK. Sewed it together, but added a border, which now made the top larger than expected.. Patchwork top completed. Now for the quilting.

The large piece of wadding I'd especially bought online was now not big enough. Buy some more. Wait on the post.. I experienced difficulty buying thread. I ordered a special colour - a variegated turquoise, so pretty.. Wait on the post. Expensive backing fabric I'd bought online from America, arrived but too small.. AARRGGHH. order more fabric.. more waiting.

Needed to lay it all out over two tables, first the backing fabric then the wadding and then the quilt top. A HUGE job, requiring another set of hands. Asked my friend Louise to come help. Spray glue and pinned it all together.

Next was choosing a design to machine quilt. I bought a stencil online from America, waited weeks for the darned thing, and the wrong one arrived. While I was waiting I'd toyed with making my own stencils, but the stencil burner died after I'd used it once. Are you sensing a theme here?

Getting the quilting design onto the fabric was going to be a challenge.. I wasn't really happy with the marking tools available, but I finally went with a quilt pounce (this is a chalk-filled tool which when rubbed over the stencil releases the chalk and leaves the design on the fabric, kind of like a chalk duster in reverse.) The chalk would only stay on the fabric for one or two designs at a time. These designs are then sewn in rows, and the rows close together, filling the whole of the Super king size quilt. Extremely time consuming but possibly better than alternative marking methods.

It was difficult to manoeuvre this huge quilt even on my quilting machine. It took many hours work. Finally it was finished, binding and label complete. It felt like I'd run a marathon.

But this is not the end of the story. More to come.

Keen to get it to Mushy in Scotland, I decided to post it ASAP despite the risk, quite excited to see how she liked it.

It cost $100 to post it, and another $30 for insurance, and I had to put a value on the parcel. With all the fabrics, wadding, threads stencil/chalk and the many hours I'd spent on this and upon the advice of those online forums that told me not to undervalue my efforts and all I had spent on this project - I went with $1000. THAT was my mistake. But off it went winging its way to Scotland. Breathing a sigh of relief to see it gone after so much work and angst it had caused.

A couple of weeks later I got a message from my friend, and a copy of a letter from Customs to her saying that "the quilt has been deemed 'Merchandise', not a gift, and before she can pick it up she has to pay tax on it because it's been valued so high. No correspondence entered into. Pay up or the quilt goes back to the sender."

Oh good grief, I didn't want her to pay anything towards her own gift. I told her not to pay - and so the quilt came back in the post. Safe. Unopened. I must admit I breathed a sigh of relief that it was returned to said sender.- me..

Mushy still hadn't received the quilt I made for her.

Rather than risk the post again, I was keen to hand deliver this quilt myself. Plans were already in the wind to go to Scotland 6 months hence, when I very happily placed the quilt on her beautiful enormous white bed myself, amid much joy and smiles from her. She loved it, along with her 5 cats. It looked spectacular on her bed.

That was 8 years ago, and I still think about that quilt.

What has making this quilt taught me:

1. It was a good idea at the time. Not all good ideas are great ideas.
2. A life lesson: Following other people's designs and ideas can lead you in the wrong direction. Pray about it, and follow your heart.
3. My good intentions led me to search in places I'd never expected- like in Bali. The discovery of a fabulous fabric shop in Denpasar.
4. When faced with having to change my good idea, and starting to sweat blood over what to do, prayed about it, no master plan came into my head, no lightning bolt answer from God came to show me what to do. God was forcing me to use the creativity He knew was already IN me to fix it.
5. Some uphill struggles are worth the effort.
6. To achieve something special takes effort and long hours. You need to just put in the time and get on with it. Slogging uphill to get to the top takes all your energy, but at the top you take in the view and breathe in beauty.
7. Every little step towards the end result is a victory. Every pin I removed was a victory, every row I quilted was a victory.
8. Some situations cause you to sweat blood over them. There is some compromise. My friend wanted a simple pattern, I was trying to fit in with what she would want.. sometimes it's best to go with your heart and do what you wanted to do in the first place.
9. God knows my heart and that I wanted to do something special for my friend. That's the best thing. To give love to someone (even someone who is easy to love) sometimes costs us.
10. Every life experience teaches us something and is not wasted.
11. That is what this quilt has taught me.

Beef Stroganoff

Ingredients:

- 1 tbsp. canola oil
- 1 lb. flank, sirloin, or skirt steak, thinly sliced
- Kosher salt and ground black pepper
- 1/4 cup (1/2 stick) unsalted butter
- 1 white onion, chopped
- 1 lb. sliced mushrooms
- 3 tbsp. all-purpose flour
- 1 3/4 cup chicken stock
- 1/4 cup white vermouth
- 1/2 cup sour cream
- 2 tbsp. Dijon mustard
- 1 tbsp. Worcestershire sauce
- 12 oz. egg noodles, cooked
- Chopped fresh flat-leaf parsley, for garnish

Method:

STEP 1

- Heat oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Season steak with salt and pepper. Cook, in 2 batches, without turning, until golden brown on one side and mostly cooked through. Transfer to a plate.

STEP 2

- Add butter and onion to skillet. Season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring occasionally, until onion begins to soften, 1 to 2 minutes. Add mushrooms and cook, stirring occasionally, until vegetables are tender, 3 to 4 minutes. Sprinkle flour over vegetables and cook, stirring, 1 minute. Stir in stock and vermouth. Cook, stirring occasionally, until thickened, 6 to 8 minutes.

STEP 3

- Remove from heat and stir in sour cream, mustard, Worcestershire, and beef. Season with salt and pepper. Serve over noodles sprinkled with parsley.

ATTENTION

PEOPLE WITH HEEL AND ARCH PAIN

Plantar Fasciitis (planar heel pain) is a common condition that causes pain under the heel of the foot, and may extend into the arch area.

WHAT ARE THE SYMPTOMS?

The pain under the heel is worse when the person first steps out of bed in the mornings, or after sitting for long periods of time. It is relieved after walking about for a few minutes, then returns towards the end of the day. Resting will ease the pain, until you get up again.

WHAT IS THE CAUSE?

The exact cause of plantar heel pain is unknown, but we do know this is a degenerative process in which micro tears occur within the plantar fascia. Several risk factors including over-pronation (rolling inwards of foot), tight calf muscles and long periods of standing/walking hard floors have been well established.

TREATMENT

Some of the more common treatments we offer are:

- Custom foot orthotics
- Corticosteroid injection
- Dry-needling
- Rehabilitation

WHY SEE WA FOOT CLINICS?

Plantar heel pain is a complex issue and treatment varies depending on the cause. At WA Foot Clinics we have Podiatrists that are highly trained foot professionals who see and treat heel pain on a daily basis.
